Section 15(a)

This proposal creates a constitutional amendment establishing a new state fund. If the amendment fails to be adopted, it will not have a fiscal impact. If the amendment is adopted, then it will have the following impact.

This proposal would create a new state fund called the Show-Me Prosperity Fund. It says the General Assembly shall appropriate money to the fund for the purpose of eliminating state-imposed taxes without impairing the real value of the fund's principal. This proposal gives the Office of the State Treasurer (STO) the authority to invest the money in the Fund.

Except for the investment of the funds, no money may be appropriated from this fund until the balance reaches high enough to cover all of the following taxes: the individual income tax, state sales and use tax, the state corporate income tax and all other state-imposed taxes. Once the balance hits the number to eliminate all those taxes, then the STO is to notify the General Assembly. At that point, the General Assembly can begin the process of using the funding to replace those taxes.

DOR notes this proposal requires that the General Assembly appropriate money to the fund to even begin this process should this amendment pass. DOR defers to the STO for the fiscal impact of this proposal. DOR will not be impacted until such time as a tax is eliminated.

Officials from the Secretary of State's Office indicated: *

Each year, a number of joint resolutions that would refer to a vote of the people a constitutional amendment and bills that would refer to a vote of the people the statutory issue in the legislation may be considered by the General Assembly.

Unless a special election is called for the purpose, Referendums are submitted to the people at the next general election. Article III section 52(b) of the Missouri Constitution authorizes the general assembly to order a special election for measures referred to the people. If a special election is called to submit a Referendum to a vote of the people, Section 115.063.2 RSMo. requires the state to pay the costs. The cost of the special election has been estimated to be $8 million based on the cost of the 2024 primary and general election reimbursements.

The Secretary of State's office is required to pay for publishing in local newspapers the full text of each statewide ballot measure as directed by Article XII, Section 2(b) of the Missouri Constitution and Section 116.230-116.290, RSMo. Funding for this item is adjusted each year depending upon the election cycle. A new decision item is requested in odd numbered fiscal years and the amount requested is dependent upon the estimated number of ballot measures that will be approved by the General Assembly and the initiative petitions certified for the ballot. In FY 2014, the General Assembly changed the appropriation so that it was no longer an estimated appropriation.

For the FY24 petitions cycle, the SOS estimates publication costs at $60,000 per page. This amount is subject to change based on number of petitions received, length of those petitions and rates charged by newspaper publishers.

The Secretary of State's office will continue to assume, for the purposes of this fiscal note, that it should have the full appropriation authority it needs to meet the publishing requirements. Because these requirements are mandatory, we reserve the right to request funding to meet the cost of our publishing requirements if the Governor and the General Assembly again change the amount or continue to not designate it as an estimated appropriation.

 Explanation of Exclusion of Fiscal Note Information From the Fiscal Note Summary

The State Auditor's Office is excluding the response from the Office of the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State's obligation to pay the costs of any election involving a statewide issue, including a special election, already exists in state law in Section 115.063.2, RSMo, and the information provided does not address the provisions of this resolution.
